designthoughts is an independent graphic design agency based in Cornwall, set up in 2009, by graphic designer Liz May. Since this designthoughts have worked with a variety of people and businesses. We pride ourselves on the work we do, and meeting the needs of our clients.
'because every design starts with a thought'...

Client: Cornwall Living magazine
Project: Editorial design and launch of magazine.

Cornwall Living magazine are a new magazine which launched in March 2012. We designed the first four issues of the magazine, the look, colour ways and helped get the magazine launched. Each issue has 40,000 copies printed, which is the largest distributed magazine, currently in Cornwall.

Logo design.

Clients include Falmouth Boat Hire, Mudskipper - Research and product design, Altered acoustix - Sound engineering company, Aquaculture design - Aquatics company and PDCA Cornwall - A new company providing supporting and advice for small businesses and start up's.

Client: Trewithen Gardens
Project: Garden party programme design.

To celebrate Her Majesty the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and the 60th anniversary of HRH Prince Charles' accession to the Dukedom of Cornwall, a special garden party was held at Trewithen Gardens on the 2nd July 2012. For which a 12 page programme was designed for the special occasion.

Client: ID Internet Marketing
Project: Business card design and icon design.

ID Internet Marketing offers online marketing consultancy to businesses based in Cornwall and throughout the UK. A range of icons were designed to represent the various aspects of the business that owner Nikki Davis provides. These icons were then used in marketing material including business card design and social media.
