

Welcome to the December designthoughts edition newsletter.

Happy Christmas from designthoughts graphic design. With Christmas almost here, we thought we would send out one last newsletter for 2011. How time flies.

Our new shop is up and running!

Yes, finally our new shop site is up and running. Which can be found at www.designgiftshop.co.uk, this is an added feature to what we do as a design business, as we love to design quirky things too, so check out new items being added throughout 2012. All with free delivery :) and currently every order will receive a free gift, as a thank you.

Website of the month..

Every month we are featuring one website that we love, this month goes to that of Alison Capeling, with her delightful website featuring brilliant items for the home garden and more, www.alisoncapeling.com

New work - design gift shop.

If you haven't already seen some of the design gift shop items, here are just some of the new products we have launched over the past couple of months.

Pictured here is just one of the ranges which uses patterns which have been washed up on the beach on bits of broken pottery, which have been carefully illustrated, repeated and with a modern look.

Look out for our cards to the featured in Cornwall Today magazine, out 20th December 2011.

Plans for 2012

Do you want to be featured in our next newsletter? Have an interesting project you are working on, or have an interesting website that you love? Why not get in touch.

Plans for 2012, are to really make the newsletter a place to feature people and what they do in the creative industry..so watch this space.

Final note.

We would like to thank you for your support over 2011, and would like to wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year see you in January.
